

MR. CHIDAMBARAM BOSE

B. Tech (Textiles), M. Tech., F.T.A., F.I.E., Hon. F.T.A.

Mr. C. Bose worked at various senior positions in the prestigious organizations like DCM, J.K.Synthetics, Nirlon and Reliance Industries for about 32 years. He was responsible in developing worlds largest texturing facilities. Presently he is the Proprietor of M/s. Bose & Co. which is a Technical Consultant firm.

He has to his credits various patents on texturing and also has published number of technical papers.

He has organized five consecutive international seminars on "Texturing" from the year 2001 to 2005 in the upcoming textile region of Silvassa & Daman.

He is the member of editorial board of technical journals and is a visiting faculty on many Textile Department / Universities. He is a governing council member of reputed Management colleges.

He has widely travelled all over the world in connection with the business & technology upgradation and is the life member of International Council of Consultants.

He is the President of TAI, Mumbai Unit since 2005 and was instrumental in successfully organizing two All India Textile Conferences in Mumbai.

For his outstanding services to the Textile Industry he was conferred with "Honorary Fellow of Textile Association" in the year 2003 by the The Textile Association (India).